ITINERARY

Day 1 - Baku

Upon arrival at the international airport of Baku you'll be met by our representative for your transfer to the hotel. After check in there'll be free time. You'll overnight in Baku. (D)

Day 2 - Baku

After breakfast, we begin our discovery of the city of Baku. You'll enjoy a sightseeing tour of Baku with a visit to the city's monumental, historical and architectural attractions as well as taking in a panorama of the Azeri capital and its bay from Upland Park, the city's highest point. From there we'll make our way down to the old city, also known as Icheri sheher. This area contained all of Baku until the mid-19th century when, as a result of the oil boom, growth spilled beyond its defensive walls. This tiny area measures just 22 square hectares yet contains many of the city's must-see sights, including the Shirvanshakhs Palace, the Maiden Tower and the Karavansaray, once the place of merchants' rest. Today, 1300 families still call Icheri sheher home, this ancient city found within the modern city of Baku. It's a delightful place to take an evening stroll through the warren of streets to Fountains Square. Overnight in Baku. (B, D)

Day 3 - Baku - Gobustan - Yanar Dag - Baku

Today, after breakfast, your guide will be ready to collect you for an exciting excursion to Gobustan National Park. Located in East Azerbaijan, Gobustan borders the southern slopes of the Major Caucasus ridge and stretches to the Caspian Sea in the east. This UNESCO World Heritage site is an archaeological reserve, home to over 6,000 ancient petroglyphs, some dating back as far as the 18th century BC. The rock carvings offer a fascinating glimpse into early human life, depicting scenes such as mountain goat hunts, ceremonial dances, and maritime activities. You will also explore ancient caves and archaeological remains that provide insight into the cultural and environmental history of the region. Afterward, the tour will take you to the mud volcanoes of Gobustan, one of the most remarkable geological features of Azerbaijan. The region boasts the highest concentration of mud volcanoes in the world, where you can witness the natural phenomenon of mud bubbling and emitting gases from the earth, creating an otherworldly atmosphere. On the return journey to Baku, a stop will be made at Yanar Dag, also known as the "Burning Mountain." This natural gas-fueled phenomenon continuously emits flames up to three meters high from the sandstone hillside, earning Azerbaijan its nickname, "Land of Fire." Overnight in Baku. (B, D)

Day 4 - Baku - Gala - Ateshgah - Ramana - Baku

Start your day with a journey through Azerbaijan's rich history and culture, visiting ancient sites and unique landmarks around Baku. Begin with a visit to Gala, located on the Absheron Peninsula. This open-air museum showcases life in ancient Azerbaijan, with exhibits including traditional houses, tools, pottery, and artifacts dating back to the 3rd century BC. Wander through recreated dwellings and learn about the lifestyles and customs of early settlers. Continue to the Ateshgah Fire Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a symbol of Azerbaijan's nickname, "Land of Fire." This 17th-century temple, built by Zoroastrian and Hindu communities, is centered around a natural gas vent that fueled eternal flames. Explore the complex and learn about its religious significance and history as a place of worship. Enjoy a traditional Azerbaijani lunch at a local restaurant on the Absheron Peninsula, where you can savour dishes like kebabs, plov, and fresh salads. Then head to the Ramana Fortress, a medieval structure built during the Shirvanshahs' reign to protect the Absheron Peninsula. This stone tower offers insights into the region's defensive architecture and provides stunning views of the surrounding landscape. Return to Baku in the evening. Overnight in Baku. (B, D)

Day 5 - Baku

Today we will immerse ourselves in the dynamic and modern side of the city, exploring landmarks that showcase its vibrant transformation. Begin with a leisurely stroll along Baku Boulevard, the city's picturesque waterfront promenade. Extending along the Caspian Sea, it offers stunning views of the skyline, including the iconic Flame Towers. These striking skyscrapers symbolise modern Azerbaijan, illuminating the city with dynamic LED displays at night. Our next stop is the Carpet Museum, a unique building designed in the shape of a rolled carpet. This architectural marvel houses an extensive collection of traditional Azerbaijani carpets, each telling a story of craftsmanship and cultural heritage. From here, we'll move to the Heydar Aliyev Cultural Centre, designed by the renowned architect Zaha Hadid. This masterpiece of fluid, wave-like architecture hosts exhibitions and cultural events, reflecting the country's forward-thinking vision. For a taste of contemporary leisure, we'll visit the Shopping Mall 28th May and Park Boulevard, two hubs of modern retail and entertainment. Located in the heart of the city and along the promenade, these malls offer an array of shops, cafes, and a chance to experience the cosmopolitan spirit of Baku. Overnight in Baku. (B, D)

Day 6 - Baku

After breakfast you'll transfer to the airport for departure. (B)
